(Lyrics are random and dynamic. There is no order.)

You the thrill
You the drill
You the frill
My little yellow pill

Doctor, doctor, give me my yellow pill

Yellow Pill
You my bill
You the ill
You the spill
Little Yellow Pill you kill

Yellow Pill
You the grill
You the shrill
you the hill
My Yellow Pill

Yellow pill
you real you deal
you kill, my little yellow pill
little yellow Pill you kill

(Voices:)

My brains been spilled. My head's been drilled. I've lost my will. Little yellow pill. I went to the doctor said doctor please. I need a refill cause I'm afraid to sneeze.

- You are the bill, you are the grill, you are the spill, you the my ill, you take my will, you the steep hill, my little little yellow pill

- My Ad For You -

It took a balmy breeze / on a winter's afternoon
One end of your scarf fell loose / and into my face it flew
I followed to the other end / and fell in love with you
And all these years later / I still remember the smell of your perfume

The chords rise and take their turns / to make a hook that's all about you

The summer night was lit / with an effervescent moon
We slow danced with our hips adjoined / and hummed this gentle tune your lips were dressed in rouge / and midnight came too soon
We slipped out between some songs / and went to find a room

Oh you know / how these memories flow Soft edges with a Gaussian blur / lyrics that rhyme with two
The chords rise and take their turns / to make a hook that's all about you

- Oh Penelope -

Oh Penelope
When you're next to me
I want to be romantically involved with you
Oh Penelope
You're where I want to be
I'm overwhelmingly in love with you

Oh, Penelope
I'm in love with you

I've lived my whole life accidentally
And now you come along
So unexpectedly

Oh Penelope
when you're close to me
You undeniably take my breath away
Oh Penelope
I categorically and therapeutically want to say

Confidentially, exponentially, so emphatically, I'm in Love with you Automatically, instantaneously, so adorably, I'm in love with you

Oh Infectiously, energetically, even spectacularly I'm in love with you Exponentially, so elaborately, even typographically, I'm in love with you optimistically, so affectionately, so flippin' amazingly, I'm in love with you biologically, automatically, instantaneously, I'm in love with you)

- I Like Blue -

I Like Blue, I like Blue,
On a sunny afternoon

We walk out the door / wearing blue jeans,
Cotton blue shirts / are crisp and clean
Makes us sing this song
Blue skies that shine / clouds and white smiles
Blue digs that shout out / “hey we're in style”
I like blue, I like blue, I like you

We hold hands together / walk down the boulevard
Window shop for hours / blue bottles and jars
Back home for dinner / the end of the day
Blue cheese with bread / wine and paté

- While You Wait -

While you wait
For your life to abate
do you ever wonder why
you were made to wait
Help Fix this world
Help Remove the hate
Ohhh, While you wait

While you age
don't be afraid
one morning you'll wake up and you'll not be awake
Fix this world
Remove the hate
That's why you were made
You were made to wait
And Work while you wait

While you rest on your climb to be famous only to realize you don't have those kind of jets
Help Fix this world
Help Remove the hate
